STATINTL

1. [REDACTED] of the Agency has been recommended highly as a possible speaker for our defense policy course, which is taught at the Air Force Academy by the Department of Political Science to all members of the First Class. I request your permission for Mr. [REDACTED] to speak in conjunction with this course on the topic, "The National Intelligence Community." His address would be presented at 1910 Hours, MST, 7 February 1962, and would be classified SECRET.

STATINTL

2. I am informed that a member of the Political Science staff has made preliminary telephonic contact with [REDACTED] and he assured us that the date mentioned above is compatible with his schedule. I am confident that [REDACTED] presentation would enhance the professional knowledge of our cadets, all of whom have much to learn about the role of intelligence in U. S. policy-making.
